The Spring terms are approaching fast and SEATS ARE FILLING UP!!

HIGHLIGHTS

- Validation Night
The purpose of this event is to assist the CAPS students with issues and concerns they might have with their registration, IT access, business account, and financial aid for Fall I session. By handling these issues in advance, we are hoping that CAPS students will have a smoother transition into the Fall term. The event will be held on Thursday, January 3, 2013 at Candler Memorial Library, on the Main Campus, from 5:30pm-8:30pm.

- Spring Open House
The event will be held on Friday, January 4, 2013 at 5:30pm at the Fort Gordon Resident Center. At this event, new changes, policies, and more will be addressed. The Provost and other invited guests will be in attendance. Refreshments will be served. Please be on the look out for more information on this event.

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

Jerry Smith
Adjunct Instructor at Paine College, Sociology

Mr. Jerry Smith has been an Adjunct Instructor at Paine College for the past year and says that his time at Paine has been “very rewarding teaching various Sociology topics (both on the Main and Fort Gordon campuses). His teaching assignment includes Introduction to Sociology, Social Deviance, Minority Groups and Introduction to Social Work”. Like Dr. W.E.B. DuBois, it is Mr. Smith’s mission to focus on the “Talented Tenth” of the Black African American population in hopes of inspiring them to obtain as much knowledge as they can at Paine College, and take it back to their communities to teach the other 90% of the Black African American population. Mr. Smith has worked as a Social Worker in a medium/maximum penitentiary; Work Release Center; and, the Richmond County jail. During the past 15 years, he has been in private practice as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, contracting with various agencies in Richmond County.

Mr. Smith has authored two books: “IT’S TIME TO STOP BLAMING THE WHITE MAN” and “IT’S STILL TIME TO STOP BLAMING THE WHITE MAN.”
