2007-2009
PAINE COLLEGE
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA
FOREWORD

The Student Handbook is published by the Division of Student Affairs to provide information which will assist students in facilitating orientation to College life and understanding the rights and responsibilities associated with membership in the College community.

The Handbook serves as a guide and is to be used in conjunction with the College Catalog and other official publications of the institution. Each student is responsible for knowing the contents of these publications. Rules and regulations are correct as of the date of printing. Every attempt is made to inform students of changes in rules and regulations when they occur. Students, however, have the responsibility of checking with the appropriate office concerning the accuracy and current status of information contained in this publication and in the College Catalog.

Any questions about policies or procedures which appear in the Handbook should be addressed to the Dean of Student Affairs Office or to the area responsible for service in question.

Paine College reserves the right to add or drop programs and courses, to make changes in the academic calendar, Student Handbook, fees, hours of operation and personnel, and to institute new requirements when such changes are desirable, warranted, or demanded. Every effort will be made to minimize the inconveniences such changes will create for students.

This Handbook will remain in effect until revised.

Paine College supports the protections available to members of its community under all applicable federal laws, including Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 799A and 845 of the Public Health Service Act, the Equal Pay and Age Discrimination Acts, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Executive Order 11246. Pursuant to these regulations, no person shall, on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, or veteran status, be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity administered by Paine College.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

Buckley Amendment

The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (20 USC 1232g) and regulations adopted thereunder (34 CFR 99) set out requirements designed to protect the privacy of students concerning their records maintained by the campus. Specifically, the statute and regulations govern access to student records maintained by the College, and the release of such records. In brief, the law provides that the College must provide students access to records directly related to the student and an opportunity for a hearing to challenge such records on the grounds that they are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate. The right to a hearing under the law does not include any right to challenge the appropriateness of a grade as determined by the instructor. The law generally requires that written consent of the student be received before releasing personally identifiable data about the student from records to other than a specified list of exceptions. An office and review board has been established by the Department to investigate and adjudicate violations and complaints. The office designated for this purpose is: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office (FERPA), US Department of Education, 330 C Street, Room 4511, Washington, DC 20202.
