PAINÉ COLLEGE HISTORY

Paine College was founded by the leadership of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, now United Methodist Church, and the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, now Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Paine was the brainchild of Bishop Lucius Henry Holsey, who first expressed the idea for the College in 1869. Bishop Holsey asked leaders in the ME Church South to help establish a school to train Negro teachers and preachers so that they might in turn appropriately address the educational and spiritual needs of the people newly freed from the evils of slavery. Leaders in the ME Church South agreed, and Paine Institute came into being.

On November 1, 1882, the Paine College Board of Trustees, consisting of six members, three from each Church, met for the first time. They agreed to name the school in honor of the late Bishop Robert Paine of the MECS who had helped to organize the CME Church. In December, the Trustees selected Dr. Morgan Callaway as the first President of the College and enlarged the Board from six to nineteen members, drawing its new membership from communities outside of Georgia so that the enterprise might not be viewed as exclusively local.

Bishop Holsey traveled throughout the Southeast seeking funds for the new school. On December 12, 1882, he presented the Trustees of Paine Institute with $7.15 from the Virginia Conference and $8.85 from the South Georgia Conference. In that same month, Reverend Atticus Haygood, a minister of the ME Church South, gave $2,000 to support President Callaway through the first year. Thus, a $2,000 gift from a white minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and $16 raised by a CME minister – penny by penny from former slaves - became the financial basis for the founding of Paine College.

In 1883, a Charter of Incorporation for The Paine Institute was granted, and the Trustees elected Dr. George Williams Walker as its first teacher. In January 1884, classes began in rented quarters located on Broad Street in downtown Augusta. On December 28, 1884, the Reverend George Williams Walker was elected President of Paine Institute following the resignation of Reverend Callaway. In 1886, the College moved to its present site on Fifteenth Street.

The year 1888 was a very significant one for Paine College. Reverend Moses U. Payne, an MECS minister from Missouri, gave $25,000 to Paine for the endowment. Also in 1888, Trustee W. A. Candler presented a resolution to the Trustees authorizing President Walker to employ John Wesley Gilbert, Paine’s first student and first graduate, to become the first Black member of the faculty. The hiring of Mr. Gilbert launched Paine’s continuing tradition of having a biracial faculty. President Walker died in 1910 after having headed Paine for twenty-six years. The Paine Institute began with a high school component and gradually developed a college department. Initially, advanced students received special instruction on an individual basis, but by 1903 sufficient college-level work was provided to justify changing the school’s name to The Paine College. Paine continued its high school department until 1945, because there was no public secondary school for Blacks in Augusta until that year. I-3 Source: Paine College Catalog and the Internet (General\History) Under the leadership of President Edmund Clarke Peters, 1929-1956, Paine College was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools as a Class “B” institution in 1931 and then as a Class “A” institution in 1945.

President E. Clayton Calhoun served as President from 1956 to 1970. During his leadership, Paine was approved by the University Senate of The Methodist Church in 1959, and the College was admitted to full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1961. Dr. Lucius H. Pitts was elected President of Paine College in 1971. He was the first alumnus and first Black President of the College. He died in his office in 1974. Dr. Julius S. Scott, Jr. served as President of the College on two separate occasions: 1975 to 1982 and 1988 to 1994. Paine alumnus, Dr. William Harris, served during the period of 1982 to 1988. In 1994, Dr. Shirley A. R. Lewis became Paine College's first female President. Dr. George C. Bradley became the fourteenth President of the College on January 1, 2008.

Under the leadership of President George C. Bradley, in the spring of 2009, the College established a Master Planning Committee. The committee examined previous master planning efforts and began the process of developing a new master plan to guide the College through the next 25 years. The Paine College Master Plan is an extension of the Strategic Plan, a document developed by the college staff and trustees. Needs and aspirations for the next century outlined in the Strategic Plan are quantified and given physical definition by the Campus Master Plan. The Strategic Plan, which seeks to support the College's mission, sets out an ambitious program for improvement and growth with the goal of becoming a leader in the area of undergraduate liberal arts education.

During 2010, changes in the physical plant became apparent. Haygood-Holsey Hall, constructed in 1977, received a massive $1.1 million makeover that extended the life of the 33 year old structure while transforming the curb appeal along Fifteenth Street, a major thoroughfare. During October 2011, the College reached another historic milestone in its physical plant. Renovation of the Randall A. Carter Gymnasium commenced. Out of the renovation, the new 43,000 sq. ft. state-of-the-art Health Education Activities Learning Complex (HEAL Complex) will emerge. The HEAL Complex will become the new home for the Department of Athletics and will offer a modern facility while providing services to meet contemporary needs of the College and the community.

In 2010, the U.S. Department of Energy awarded Paine College $3 million to support academic programs and research in science, technology, engineering and mathematics. The College witnessed an upswing in alumni giving and donations from all constituents beginning with Dr. Bradley's tenure in 2008. Specifically, the percentage of alumni giving rate increased from 3% in 2007 to 19.5% in 2011. On July 1, 2011, Paine College reorganized its academic units into two schools: the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Professional Studies. Each school governs three departments in which there are 16 majors that lead to Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. Prior the restructure of the academic programs, the College offered courses through five divisions. The new academic structure will move the institution closer to its vision of being recognized regionally as a premier liberal arts institution of higher education.

The College remains a small, predominantly Black, coeducational, church-related school, gratefully related to its founding denominations and open to all.

THE PAINE COLLEGE IDEAL

- To love truth and to seek it above material things;
- To ennoble and be ennobled by common fellowship;
- To keep the energies of life at full tide;
- To cultivate an appreciation of the beautiful;
- To work well and play with zest;
- To have an open, unprejudiced mind;
- To live simply, practicing a reasonable economy;
- To find joy in work well done;
- To be an earnest disciple in the school of Him who brings the abundant life;
- To work diligently for a better understanding of the White and Black races.

Such is the spirit and ideal of Paine College. To all who share this spirit and are eager for the pursuit of high things, we offer a hearty welcome.

The Paine College Ideal was originally developed by a faculty committee appointed by President E. C. Peters and approved by the faculty in 1933. It was revised by the Board of Trustees at the Spring Meeting in 2003.

PAINE COLLEGE HYMN

Frank G. Yerby, '37

Mark Fax

O College of our heart's desire,
resplendent in our gaze,
Awake in us thy sacred fire
and let us to thy truth aspire throughout the coming days.

And may the thing that thou has sought,
our nation's woeful lack.
True union of the hearts be brought and differences be set at naught between the white and black.

Paine College, guardian of the way that each young foot must tread.
Thy gates are open to this day
and our firm, martial strides display hearts clean and unafraid.

PAINÉ COLLEGE ALMA MATER

Ye noble sons and daughters of old P.C. grand and strong
Come blend with ours your voices, and we'll raise our loyal song;
With one sweet echo of this strain, now let us all unite
To stand forever by this flag, the purple and the white.

One color stands for royalty, the other white and pure,
And when the two are floating high the gods will envy you,
No greater emblem stirs our hearts, no other views our sight;
We only ask to see and cheer the purple and white.

It stands for those who fought and won upon the battle field,
The victories that float o'er us and cause our hearts to yield
To all the ties of college life, to all that's just and right
And ever will we laud thy worth, the purple and white.

When in our walks old age has come, and life is almost o'er,
When thru the hours of rest and care we view thy sites once more;
We'll sing of thee, we'll pray for thee with all our main and might;
We'll never say farewell to thee, the purple and white.

Refrain:

Hurrah, hurrah Paine College,
Hurrah for the purple and white;
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Hurrah for the purple and white.

-Henry Steward Dunbar

Gentlemen:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) and 509(a)(1).

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If your gross receipts each year are normally more than $5,000, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file a return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Please keep this determination letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

Exempt Organization Specialist

This ruling is based on evidence that you have a racially nondiscriminatory policy as to students. Revenue Procedure 75-50, IRB 1975-49, page 46, sets forth guidelines and recordkeeping requirements for determining whether private schools have racially nondiscriminatory policies as to students. To assure your continued exemption, you should maintain records to show that you are in compliance with all of the requirements of Revenue Procedure 75-50.

PAINÉ COLLEGE ACADEMIC FREEDOM

The following statement of academic freedom was approved by the academic faculty on April 2, 1980, and was reaffirmed March 28, 1990:

Paine College has traditionally entitled instructors to full freedom in teaching, research, and publication, with the proviso that research for monetary return should rest on a prior understanding with the College. Instructors are guaranteed freedom of discussion in the classroom, provided any controversial material be germane to subject matter. The College imposes no limitations on academic freedom, but does expect that faculty members, whatever their private convictions, shall manifest respect for the aims, ideals, and religious traditions on which the College was founded.

When instructors speak or write as citizens, they are free from institutional censorship but should remember that the teaching profession and the institution may be judged by their words. Hence accuracy, restraint, and respect for the opinions of others should be their guidelines, and they should make it clear that they speak as individual citizens rather than as representatives of the College.
