Ms. Kimberely Scott

Kimberely Scott is a News Anchor, currently on the FOX54 Morning Show.

She is an award-winning journalist with more than two decades, dedicated to serving the community. In the past, Kimberely worked on the anchor desk at News Channel 6 in Augusta and in Greenville, South Carolina. With a deep passion for empowering others, she shares inspiration by serving as a conference speaker.

She has traveled multiple times to South Africa to encourage and serve those in need. Kimberely also hosts impactful events across the CSRA, Atlanta, and Ohio, to include "All Night Prayer" events that include local churches coming together for worship gatherings.

Kimberely currently serves on the Board of Directors for Watchman House, Inc., a local organization that serves the homeless and underserved children across the CSRA and in the Atlanta area. She also serves on the board of Saint Luke United Methodist Church, which is located in the Harrisburg community in Augusta, Georgia.

In her leisure time, Kimberely enjoys cooking, traveling, experiencing new cultures and shopping.

The Paine College Hymn

Mr. Frank Yerby, ’37 and Mr. Mark Fax

O College of our heart’s desire,
resplendent in our gaze, Awake in us thy sacred fire and let us to thy truth aspire throughout the coming days.

And may the thing that thou hast sought,
our nation’s woeful lack,
True union of the heart be brought and differences be set at naught between the white and black.

Paine College, guardian of the way that each young foot must tread, Thy gates are open to this day and our firm, martial strides display hearts clean and unafraid.
